Anonymous Donor Leaves Generous Gift

Burnaby, B.C. (December 6, 2021) Lt. Colonel Jamie Braund and Director of Development Kim Findlay proudly display a donation for $1.5 million made to The Salvation Army BC Division. The generous donation is designated for the building of a brand-new facility on the Downtown Eastside, which will begin in the spring of 2022. The donor, who prefers to remain anonymous, is a long-time supporter of the Army's work in the community and hopes the gift will inspire others to support the project and the good work the organization does every day in the community.
