Salvation Army Board Makes Transformational Gift

Burnaby, B.C. (October 18, 2021) The Greater Vancouver Advisory Board of The Salvation Army recently made a donation to the BC Division, totalling $2,370,000. This money is going to be used to support the Army in its efforts to address the effects of poverty, homelessness, mental health and addiction that currently impacts the Downtown Eastside. For over 65 years, The Salvation Army has operated on the Downtown Eastside providing essential services to those in need.
